Agenda for Healthy-Polis Workshop
Regency Room, Ritz Hotel, Rome, Wednesday 31st August 2016 at 13.45hrs

This workshop is funded by the World Universities Network to develop understanding and continuing research into:

- challenges posed by climate change and NCDs in cities,
- international approaches to healthy urban planning and sustainability, and
- integrated assessment of urban planning interventions.

13.45 – 13.55  INTRODUCTION TO HEALTHY-POLIS AND PURPOSE OF THE MEETING (10 mins)
Prof Clive Sabel (Bristol University) & Dr Sotiris Vardoulakis (Public Health England)

13:55 -14.15  BRIEF INTRODUCTIONS BY WUN PARTICIPANTS (20 min)

1)  Non-communicable diseases (NCD) and Climate Change
   Chair:   Dr Sotiris Vardoulakis (PHE)

14.15 – 14.35  CURRENT STATUS OF RESEARCH (20mins)
A short update on key areas identified
William Goggins (Chinese University of Hong Kong) & Lena Weissert (Auckland University)
(Drawn from background knowledge and discussion papers presented in advance)

14.35 – 15.05  PANEL DISCUSSION (30 mins)
Panellists: Nick Osborne (Sydney University), Giovanni Leonardi (PHE), Katherine Arbuthnott (LSHTM/PHE)
To raise and draw together themes and grant applications with collaborative research potential

2)  Urban design and Well-being
   Chair:   Prof Clive Sabel (Bristol University)

15.05 – 15.25  CURRENT STATUS OF RESEARCH (20 mins)
A short update on key areas identified
Kim Dirks (Auckland University) & Clare Mouat (Western Australia University)
(Drawn from background knowledge and discussion papers presented in advance)

15.25 – 15.55 (30 mins)  PANEL DISCUSSION
Panellists: Rosemary Hiscock (Bristol University), Lauren Smith (Bristol University)
To raise and draw together themes and grant applications with collaborative research potential

15.55 – 16.05  BREAK

16.05 – 17.05 (60 mins) BREAK-OUT GROUPS TO DEVELOP FUTURE COLLABORATION GRANTS IN THE TWO THEMES
Agree Chairs / Flexibility to move between groups / Consider discussion papers / Define and develop emerging themes / Prepare grant proposal ideas for the way forward / Agree presenters

17.05 – 18.00   PLENARY SESSION (55 mins)
Chairs:   Prof Clive Sabel (Bristol University) & Prof Keith Dear (Duke Kunshan University)
Reporting back from break-out groups / Questions & Answers / Action Plans for future grant applications and publications